THE Inaugural UQ Steve Irwin Memorial Lecture will be hosted by The Brisbane Institute at Customs House this evening. The University of Queensland’s Professor Craig Franklin, pictured, will present a talk — Steve Irwin Wildlife Reserve: A biodiversity and research hotspot — about his decade-long venture to monitor the movements and behaviours of estuarine crocodiles in the Wenlock River, which borders the Steve Irwin Wildlife Reserve.

Where: The Art Gallery, Customs House, 399 Queen St, Brisbane
When: 6pm
Cost: $25/$15
Info: 3220 2198 or www.brisinst.org.au