DENGUE RESEARCH

An international project to eliminate dengue fever funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, and led and pioneered by a University of Queensland research team begins field trials in North Queensland in January.